

From: "dallen9556" <dallen9556@esagelink.com>
To: "Ellen Meyer" <goldenwind@worldnet.att.net>
Sent: Tuesday, June 12, 2007 7:35 AM
Subject: RE: SAVE DFW PUPPY REFERRAL

I am no longer given all that information, but I heard from someone else that the lawyer made the changes.

> Can someone ask her if the club attorney knows that the > club is trying to change the bylaws in the middle of a > lawsuit regarding the bylaws?

>

>

>

> _____

> From: Shari Degan [<mailto:mohrgold4@yahoo.com>]

> Sent: Monday, June 11, 2007 10:31 AM

> To: dallen9556

> Subject: Re: SAVE DFW PUPPY REFERRAL

>

>

>

> Debra,

>

>

>

> I can not attend this meeting due to that I teach a puppy > agility class on that night. I am totally against the
> By-Law proposal for puppy referral. The way the proposed > By-Law is written, there is no checks or balances in > regards to who monitors the board, puppy referral > committee, etc or what type of information is given > regarding litters. It could turn into selective > information on where the breeder politically stands with > the board or puppy referral chair.

>

>

>

> Shari Degan

>

> 214-796-0988

>

> dallen9556 <dallen9556@esagelink.com> wrote:

>

> Please come the the club meeting June 19th at 7PM at Judy

> Word's house to help save puppy referral.

>

> If you talk to some of the board members/constitution > committee they will try to tell you puppy referral is not > going away. DONT BELIEVE THEM. If the proposed changes > are approved there will be no provisions for referring to > people with litters. Without that protection in place, the > board (comprised entirely of nonbreeders) can discontinue > the referral process at any time.

>

> Please attend and make your feelings known.

>

> If you would like to discuss this you can call me at > 972-524-9556.

>

>